

SUPPLY CHAIN MANAGEMENT IN CHINA Students interested in enrolling in this course are invited to submit a short statement of up to one-page stating why you want to take this course, how you expect to use what you learn in your future career, what relevant operations courses you have taken or will take, and your grades in those courses, if available.

Please submit your statement to: opim899@gmail.com. Do not submit an attachment but paste your statement into the body of the email. The deadline for the application is Monday, November 28 at 11:59 PM EST (9 PM PST)

Because you will be visiting several cities in quick succession, you will be required to purchase a travel package that will include in-country transportation, hotels and some meals. This class will begin at 6:30 pm on March 5th and end at approximately 1pm on Saturday, March 11th. Additional information regarding the travel package will follow if you are selected.