

Happy June!

As you begin your onboarding process, be sure that you start with setting up your PennKey and Wharton account. These are critical in accessing important resources such as the Onboarding Checklist.

Once you have set up your accounts, please take a moment to review the Pre-Term general schedule and register for Pre-Term.

Note: You must have both your PennKey and Wharton account created to access onboarding resources. It may take up to 24 hours after creating your Wharton account to gain access.

This email contains information about the following onboarding activities:

- June Onboarding Deadlines
- June Live Presentations – Waivers
- Student Life Fellow Outreach

View the schedule of events

Waivers, Substitutions and Placements

Tuesday, June 6 - 8:30-9:25 am EST

Zoom link

Join members of the Academic Affairs team for an overview of waiver, substitution, and placement options for incoming students. The presenters will also provide information about the process and key deadlines.

Writing Waiver Exam Overview

Tuesday, June 6 - 9:30-10:00 am EST

Zoom link

Members of the Communication Program will give an overview of the Writing Waiver Exam - what it is, when it's due, how it's evaluated, etc.- and will answer questions from students.

Student Life Fellow Outreach

Student Life Fellows (SLF) are Second Year MBA students charged with supporting the mission of the MBA Office of Student Life by working closely with the Student Life staff and MBA students across classes to foster and develop a sense of community and belonging at Wharton. Expect to hear from a SLF by June 11 to learn more about the Wharton community, connecting with fellow admitted students, and to be available to answer any questions you may have about the student experience.

You can also find the SLFs answering questions and providing advice on the WG25 Slack!
